Verse 2:

They furnished up an apartment with a two-room Roebuck sale
The Coolerator was crammed with TV dinners and ginger ale
But when Pierre found work, the little money come in worked out well
C'est la vie, say the old folks, they go to show you never can tell.

Verse 3:

They had a hi-fi phono, boy did they let it blast
Seven hundred little records all rockin' rhythm and jam
But when the sun went down the rapid tippie of the music fell
C'est la vie, say the old folks, they go to show you never can tell.

Verse 4:

They bought a souped-up Chevvy was a cherry-red '53
And drove it down to Orleans to celebrate their anniversary
It was there that Pierre was waving to the lovely Mademoiselle
C'est la vie, say the old folks, they go to show you never can tell.

Verse 6:

They had a teenage wedding and the old folks wished them well
You could see that Pierre did truly love the Mademoiselle
And now the young M'sieur and Madame have rung the chapel bell
C'est la vie, say the old folks, they go to show you never can tell.
